

The discussion form is used to create assessment reports for one or more program learning outcomes. There is currently no permanent location to access this feature; an example can be viewed at <http://csci36.pythonanywhere.com/>

The create a report

1. Navigate to the index page.
2. Select the area of study from the 'Discipline area' menu.
